RWANDA INITIATIVE FOR GOVERNANCE CELEBRATED INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE

Various categories of people attended the ceremonies

21 September the World celebrates International Day of Peace. This year 2013 Rwanda joined the nations to celebrate this great day. The ceremonies took place at Kigali Independent University at Kigali, the capital of Rwanda. The topic was Education for peace. Various categories of people attended: government officials, civil society members, international organizations, students from nearest institutions. Participants discussed the role of intellectuals in consolidation of sustainable peace in Rwanda, good governance and peace. The ceremonies were closed by the entertainment of musicians. The International Day of Peace was established in 1981 by resolution 36/67 of the United Nations General Assembly.

"On this International Day of Peace, let us pledge to teach our children the value of tolerance and mutual respect. Let us invest in the schools and teachers that will build a fair and inclusive world that embraces diversity. Let us fight for peace and defend it with all our might." UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon
